CROWN BATTLESHIP. claware Will Be Christened the Efficiency Queen To-day. A unique naval ecremony will occur in immpton Roads to-day, when the battle-snip Leiawars will be officially crowned efficiency queen "of the navy. Assistant Secretary of the Navy Winthrop, accompanied by Admiral Hutch I. Cone and Lieut. Commander Cradon, will present to the Delaware and her commander, Capt. John F. Hood, the pennant for greatest efficiency in engineering and sunnery. Winthrop will read a letter from the President, expressing his appreciation of the ship's good work. Then he will make a speech, and the pennant will be hotsted on the Delaware to fly the remainder of the year. The same time the battleship Michigan, which last year led in efficiency, will lower the pennant, which site now holds. The names of the nime officers of the Delaware, who contributed to the ship's efficiency, will be inscribed in the archives of the navy. Secretary Winthrop will make the trip to Hamipton Roads in the Presidential yacht Mayflower, leaving Washington yesterday afternoon.
